Zeigel Charges Speech Made To 'Get A Headline'

Luther Asks Administrators To Attend Meeting Sunday To Discuss Problems

By Ken Noblit

William H. Zeigel, vice president for administration, charged that Student Senate President Bob Luther, made his speech criticizing the University because he wanted to get a headline in the newspaper, in an address to the Student Senate Dec. 16.

Art Maxwell Dies In Auto Accident

Arthur G. Maxwell III, a senior from Des Plaines, was killed Dec. 28 when the car he was driving crashed head-on with another car.

State police said Maxwell crashed into an auto driven by Keith Beaird of Mattoon when Maxwell attempted to pass a trailer truck. The accident took place nine miles north of Toledo on route 121.

He was on his way to work at Mattoon radio station WLBH-FM. Maxwell started working there last December. He was formerly special events director for campus radio station WELH.

He was born in Chicago March 14, 1945, the son of Arthur G., Jr. and Theresa Vasko Maxwell.

Adin Baber To Speak At History Meeting

The History Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Lab School Auditorium to hear Adin Baber speak on "This Is Lincoln Country." Baber is an authority on Lincoln.

The meeting is open to all interested persons.

ZEIGEL SAID, "We've got to make a speech and get a headline, don't we?", referring to Luther's comments made at the senate meeting Dec. 2 in which Luther said the University was failing to fulfill the needs of the students.

Previous to Zeigel's comments, Luther had re-stated his case. He then invited President Quincy Doudna, Dean Rudolph D. Anfinson, Dean Donald A. Kluge, Dean Michael Hocht, Dean William D. Miner, Dean Elizabeth K. Lawson, Director of Food Services Mrs. Ruth Gaertner, Director of Library Services Roscoe F. Schaupp, University Bookstore Manager Garland E. Bryan, and Director of the Counseling Center James Corey to attend the next meeting of the Student Senate Executive Council.

THAT MEETING is set for 7 p.m. Sunday in the Student Senate Room in the University Union.

Zeigel, in addressing the Student Senate, said he "would come to any meeting to discuss any problem if invited without pressure." He did not, however, explain what he meant by "without pressure."

Continuing, he said, "To quote as facts things that are not true leaves something to be desired." Zeigel was apparently referring to Luther's speech which he said contained "11 or 12 charges and most are not statements of fact."

IN RE-STATING his position, Luther said he wanted students taught "that they can criticize and not be afraid to criticize."

Luther, earlier in the meeting, had admitted that he had misworded his statement about it being impossible to get help from the food staff for the Miss Illinois reception.

In related action, at the Dec. 15 meeting of the Faculty Senate, the group voted to table a request (from Doudna) for further study. The President had asked that the Faculty Senate study the charges made by Luther and by an editorial in the News concerning student-faculty relationships.

Panthers Place Sixth In Pan Am Holiday Basketball Tournament

EDITOR'S NOTE: Editor Ken Noblit and Associate Editor Bill Kaczor covered the tournament for the News, reporting the games to local newspapers and taking pictures of the tourney games and cultural activities that the team participated in.

By Ken Noblit

Eastern's improving basketball team traveled to Edinburg, Tex. during the Christmas vacation where it participated in the Pan American Basketball Tournament, finishing sixth in a field of eight teams.

IN THE tourney opener, the Panthers fell before St. Edward's of Austin, Tex., 67-66. Eastern trailed 38-32 at the half, but as was typical of the team during each game in the tournament, the Panthers rallied in the second half.

With just over one minute left in the game, EIU led 63-61 but the Hilltoppers capitalized on turnovers and missed shots to win the contest.

The Panthers' second game was against Parsons College of Iowa in a consolation bracket contest which Eastern won, 86-81, once again coming from behind in the second half.

Coach Rex V. Darling used only five men in the contest and Larry Miller, Dave Pavelonis and Don Templeman sparked the team to victory. Miller hit 10 of 21 field goal attempts and tied for game-scoring honors with 23.

PAVELONIS HIT 11 of 17 attempts and tallied 23 points. Templeman sank five of 11 attempts for 12 points and Rich Barni tallied 10.

Rivieras To Provide Dance Music Tuesday

The Rivieras, internationally-known recording artists, will play for a dance in the University Union Ballroom at 7 p.m. Tuesday. The dance, sponsored by the Student Senate, will feature the presentation of a new record to Eastern, a golden record.

The recording group began two and one half years ago in La Porte, Ind., where it played its first professional performance at the Tipton Terrace Hotel.

The Rivieras' first record, "California Sun," became an international hit, selling almost one million copies.

Members of the group are Otto Nuss, organ; Doug Gean, bass guitar; Jim Boal, lead guitar; Terry McCoy, drums; and Jeff McKew, rhythm guitar.

Legvold To Lecture Here Next Week

Sam Legvold, a faculty member in the Department of Physics at Iowa State University, Ames, will be a visiting lecturer at Eastern Monday and Tuesday.

His two-day program, sponsored jointly by the American Association of Physics Teachers and the American Institute of Physics, will feature a public lecture, "Metals, Photons and Magnons with Demonstrations," at 2 p.m. Tuesday in Room S216 of the Science Building.

Legvold, who holds M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from Iowa State, was graduated summa cum laude from Luther College at Decorah, Ia., in 1935.

The author of several dozen articles appearing in professional journals, Legvold has recently been engaged in research on low temperature physics and magnetism under grants from the Air Force Office of Scientific Research.

Larry Miller has his shot blocked in the Arkansas AM & N contest.

Graduation Application

Graduation requirements for students in the College of Letters and Science are checked by the L. and S. Dean. Students are responsible for initiating I and II in the following summary of steps from application of graduation:

I. One year prior to final quarter.

1. Student files application to graduate in the Records Office as soon as he is within 64 q. h. of completing graduation requirements.

2. Student receives by mail evaluation of his progress toward completion of graduation requirements. Student confers with Dean if he questions this evaluation.

II. At beginning of final quarter.

3. After student has enrolled in courses which will complete all graduation requirements, he submits final quarter checklist to the L. and S. Office. Blank checklists may be obtained from Miss Matthews in M209.

4. Student receives by mail from L. and S. Dean a statement confirming the student's program to complete graduation requirements or a statement of requirements which will remain to be completed at the end of that quarter.

III. After final quarter.

5. L. and S. Dean submits appropriate certificate to the Dean, Student Academic Services.

Marine Officer Selection Team
To Interview Students In Union

A Marine Officer selection team will be at Eastern from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday in the University Union Lobby to interview students interested in becoming Marine Corps officers upon graduation.

Programwise, freshmen, sophomores and juniors are eligible for the Marine Platoon Leaders Class. It is designed not to interfere with college studies since all Marine PLC training is confined to a six-week session during each of two summer vacations.

The team will also seek interviews with graduating seniors. The Officer Candidate Course is conducted following graduation and offers commissions in both aviation and other fields.

A limited number of college women (juniors and seniors) will be considered for the Women Officer Candidate Course which prepares qualified women for commissions in the Marine Corps.

Junior women may complete the WOCC during the summer vacation, receiving their commission upon graduation.

High School Complaints Deserve Apathy

Editor: High school complaints from university students deserve administration apathy. Here are some such complaints:

1. STANDING outside in cold weather at the Textbook library for the student welfare in "study." Shall we all write to mother about this total-unbearable situation?

2. There was concern expressed for the safety of certain students driving 46 miles to the University of Illinois because Booth Library did not have enough books. Even if our library had the "1.5 million volumes that are needed for an advanced master's program," most graduate students would still risk life and limb and drive the 46 miles to one of the best and largest libraries in the United States. (I hope there is an equal concern for the suitcase students

Pan Am Meet More Than Basketball; Team Sees Mexico, EIU Gets Publicity

By Bill Kaczor

The Pan American Holiday Tournament was more than just a few basketball games won, lost and forgotten for the members of the Panther cage squad.

The hospitality of Pan American College and Edinburg, Tex., plus the experiences they provided will remain lifelong memories for the players, a sentiment expressed by Coach Rex V. Darling.

most impressed the touring Panthers was Mexico. The team was taken on a tour of Reynosa, Mexico, a border town near Edinburg on Dec. 29. It was the morning following Eastern's victory over Parsons College, so the mood was rather relaxed.

The tour took the team down the narrow streets of Reynosa to the town's open market, where the players were able to buy and barter for souvenirs.

Lean and lanky Bob Williamson, who stands 6 ft. 5 in., captured the interest of the Mexicans, who are traditionally of short stature, as well as his teammates when he bought a tall sombrero, which increased his height by at least another foot.

THE TEAM was fascinated by the Mexican art being sold, especially paintings done on black velvet. Coach Darling relied on the judgment of his starting guard Dave Pavelonis, who is an art student, in choosing a pair of appropriate carved wood masks for his den.

So intrigued were they with the Mexican town, the team again visited Reynosa that evening. But as soon as they returned from that excursion the Panthers had to reverse their field again, as they were taken back across the border for a post tournament banquet, Mexican style.

The team also found out that the wild west is still pretty wild. While picking oranges at the invitation of a local planter they heard several shots and the zing of bullets tracing their way through the orchard.

Honorary coach Tyler Russell was hit by one of the riflemen, thought to be youngsters trying out their Christmas presents, but he was unhurt as the shots, it turned out, were fired from weak powered pellet guns.

THROUGHOUT the tournament the publicity conscious Darling managed to spread the word about Eastern and its expanding athletic interests. He was constantly hobnobbing with other coaches and more often than not dominated the conversation.

In reviewing the benefits gained from the tournament Darling pointed out the experience the team gained in playing against the caliber of competition, which was gathered at Edinburg.

Other than Tennessee A & I, Darling said that the schedule will not provide any stronger opposition than that which the Panthers had to face at Pan Am.

Student Life Panel Discusses Lack Of Communications At EIU

The Student Life Committee, an informal discussion group, is attempting to remedy a lack of communications between students and administration, which it feels exists at Eastern.

PRESIDENT Quincy Doudna, who was present at the committee's last meeting before the Christmas vacation, told the group, which consists of various student leaders and certain faculty members and administrators, that he had gotten more ideas on student views in the half hour he spent there than at any other time.

The topic under consideration was the role of the students in the administration of the University, which was being probed by means of a panel discussion.

The panel, which included Ken Noblit, editor of the News, Bruce

McDonald, former Union Board senator, and Joe Glassford, former student senator, was moderated by Jon Hopkins, associate professor of speech, and concluded that the main problem in student-administration relations was communication.

HOPKINS SUMMED up student interest as not being concerned so much with owning and operating but in knowledge about administration and the ability to offer opinions.

An interested student, one of the few who attended the discussion, brought up the problem of student apathy and said that better communications and the knowledge that students' problems will be heard would relieve this condition.

AFTER HEARING the views expressed, President Doudna suggested that the Student Life Committee or similar groups, which could be formed, meet with him regularly. He further expressed the desire to meet with "typical students" rather than just campus leaders.

The next meeting of the committee will be at 3 p.m. Tuesday in the Student Senate Room.

New Degrees Approved

The Illinois Board of Higher Education Tuesday approved a request that Eastern be permitted to grant master's degrees in speech correction and physics.

The board staff said the speech correction program is particularly needed because of a shortage of teachers in the field.

All varsity baseball candidates should contact Coach Ben Newcomb's office in Lantz Gymnasium before 5 p.m. Friday afternoon.

WELH Radio Needs Sports Announcers For Basketball Games, Wrestling Meets

WELH, the campus radio station, is in need of announcers for basketball games and wrestling meets, according to Carroll Richards, senior from Mattoon.

RICHARDS, Sports Director for the station, said that the announcers are needed because of an expansion in the sports coverage at Eastern.

WELH began sports programming last spring with no sports. Before the quarter was over, the station was carrying three shows per week.

This fall, following approval of the budget, the sports staff began broadcasting all of the home football games and two of the away contests. This year, WELH is also covering all home basketball games and five of the away meets, including the Monday night game at Indiana State in Terre Haute, Ind.

Now, for the first time, Richards has announced that WELH will broadcast at least one and possibly two of the EIU wrestling matches in January, probably starting with the University of Illinois contest Jan. 27.

IN ADDITION to this programming, the sports staff has four shows per week this quarter, according to Richards.

Any students interested in announcing basketball and/or wrestling meets this season should contact Richards by stopping at the station in Booth Library, by phoning DI 5-2433, or by writing to Richards.

Richards also said that he will be leaving to student teach spring quarter and that one of the new announcers will be needed to be Sports Director for the remainder of the year.

trailed 49-40 at the half.

Then, behind 64-48 with just over 10 minutes remaining, EIU began its rally, eventually tying the score at 75-75 with 5:23 left. Arkansas scored the next 10 points and won the game, 95-85.

Larry Miller, senior forward from Clinton, was named to the All-Tourney Team picked by the coaches and members of the news media present at the tournament.

Cagers Host CMU Chips In Loop Tilt

Eastern's varsity cagers, sporting a 3-7 mark, will entertain Central Michigan in Lantz Gym at 8 p.m. Saturday for the third conference battle of the campaign for both teams.

The Chips, currently leading the IAC, have a 2-0 record in the conference. The Panthers, starting this year's season in the cellar after last year's IAC title, are 0-2 against conference foes.

EASTERN WILL journey to Terre Haute, Ind. Monday to meet Indiana State.

Last Tuesday night the Panthers dropped their seventh game of the season by a narrow 71-67 score in an overtime against a highly regarded Lewis College.

Tom Moriarty and Larry Miller led the Panther charge with 15 points each. Dave Pavelonis, the only other Panther in double figures, chipped in 12.
